

For my sweet Valentine... I sourced the very best, the finest ever, the most scrumptious chocolate available in the UAE... and found:

Renowned international luxury chocolatier, La Maison du Chocolat.

The Parisian masters of chocolate, La Maison du Chocolat opened in Dubai Mall in November 2013 - in the Fashion Avenue, alongside the most famous fashion and accessories outlets!

Surely, a strange place to situate a chocolate shop, you may query; but, no, once you taste, you realize the sweet masterpieces are an expression of a supreme ideal. This is no regular chocolate! A reference for deluxe chocolates the world over, La Maison du Chocolat's creations are handmade with artistry, showcasing the brand's savoir-faire and craftsmanship.

La Maison du Chocolat was founded in 1977 by Robert Linxe and has crafted incredible chocolate creations of unique taste in its Parisian atelier ever since. The brand carries on the tradition of its grand classics and each season crafts new chocolate collections, including three sizes of red heart-shaped gift-boxes for St. Valentine's Day this February 14th.

What's inside the heart-shaped box? Oh Glorious Chocolate!

La Maison du Chocolat has taken the science of chocolate-making to an art form, creating perfect harmony on the palate and a unique experience of taste.

You know when your eyes close and your taste senses blast your brain so hard, they say “time stands still”?

Yes, that’s love and/or chocolate.

One taste and we realized that the chocolate we know and normally eat is nothing but factory-processed cocoa butter and sugar.

How can we ever go back now???

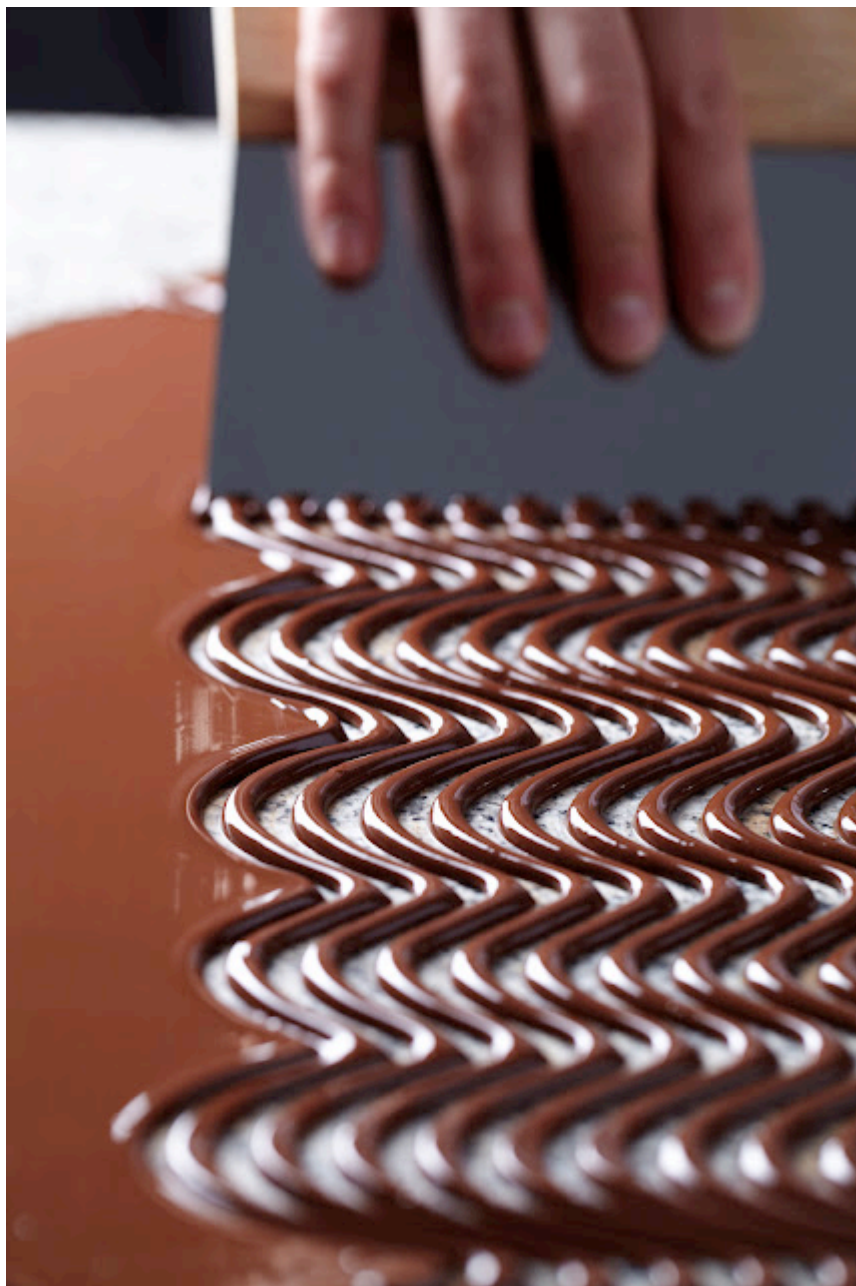

The artisan's first boutique in the Middle East offers exceptional, highly sought-after creations.

Selecting only the finest cacao beans and best vintages available, La Maison du Chocolat's creations are one-of-a-kind.

La Maison du Chocolat typifies artisanal expertise blended with elegance and finesse, always pushing the limits of taste excellence.
