

A fabulous location downtown and a fully-renovated historical building is just the beginning of what the Excelsior Hotel Gallia has to offer discerning guests.

And the details of the imposing hotel structure have been retained in all their glory.

Overlooking Piazza Duca d'Aosta and the architectural splendour of Stazione Centrale, the views are to die for.

Yet amidst this atmosphere of old-world luxury, the interior decor is stunning in its sophistication and modern feel.

A distinct focus on suites and room types ensure that guests will find what they are looking for in terms of room lifestyle - admire the magnificent Katara Suite, for instance:

Add a world-class spa, run by Shiseido, and a host of business options, a fabulous roof-top restaurant, and your ideal stay in Milan is guaranteed at the Excelsior.

