Well, in the place where Dubai was born.

By the Creek, Bur Dubai side

Recently re-developed, and turned into Al Seef street, Dubai Heritage District.

A delightful place for a visit, a totally different universe to the modern metropolis with its mega-malls, skyscrapers and 6-lane highways!

and home to numerous museums and important heritage societies

But down the alleyways of this important historical walkway, stands proudly a cafe that is dedicated to presenting the best coffee - Cafe Trucillo.

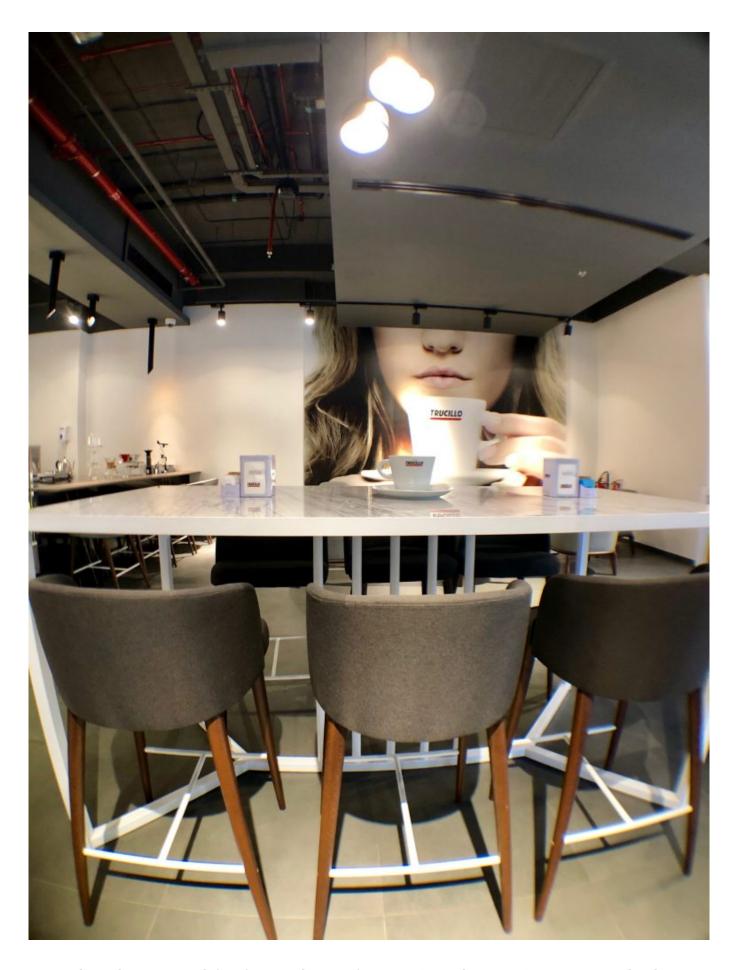

The modernity in equipment and decor complements the heritage feel of the outdoors seating, but it is the coffee that is the crown jewel at Cafe Trucillo!

Elevated to the highest level, the Trucillo Academy is in fact a university dedicated to the world-wide drink – and there, they study and strive for the absolute perfection.

It's amazing just how different a perfect cup of coffee tastes, compared to the usual brackish sourmash slopped into paper cups out of lukewarm, standing-still, drip-coffee jugs... yuck!

Check out Trucillo...
