As one of the world's top restaurants, and this consistently over decades, you can expect and receive superlative service, as did the thousands of famous personalities who graced Gundel's dining halls before you. Some of their photos adorn the entrance lobby: Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, and His Holiness John Paul II, among many others.

Similarly, priceless art is part of the decor.

The ambience is formal and elegant, yet also airy and welcoming.

At the turn of the century, Gundel restaurant was the brainchild of Károly Gundel, the renowned Hungarian culinary master. In his wake the current Chef Merczi Gabor continues to make strides in epicurean creations fit for royalty.

At his side, his partner in crime, Sommelier Mihaly Fabok, sources, collects and matches outstanding complements of wine.

The dining experience overall is a symphony of perfection for the bon vivant.

The results are exquisite, for all courses. The Chainne Des Rotisseurs agrees and has awarded its highest professional recognition to Gundel's.

Indeed, if you are in Budapest, missing the chance to dine at Gundel's would be unforgivable.
