

Dining at Aroma is unforgettable - guaranteed.

See for yourself...

Now you understand that the guarantee was easy to make: the most incredible view that Rome can offer, and Michelin-star food!

Aroma restaurant is situated on the roof-top terrace of the five-star hotel, Palazzo Manfredi, facing an unobstructed view of the Colosseum.

When it is lit up at night, there can be no scene more iconically representing Rome as Aroma's.

You are basically dining as an Emperor of Ancient Rome.

Equally memorable is the food.

The gourmet menus are care of one of Italy's most talented Chefs, Giuseppe di Iorio, whose creations delight both the palate and the eyes.

Deserving of the coveted Michelin star, Aroma presents several full degustation menus, which follow the seasons and the Chef's creativity.

The delicacies served at Aroma could stand on their own, without the views - in a sense, you could dine blindfolded and enjoy a superlative meal - but, add the ambience created by the view, and unforgettable is truly the word to describe Aroma.
