From the snazzy non-alcoholic drinks to the elegant dessert section, and everywhere in between, be prepared for a dinner fit for royalty.

But, above all, comes the freshest seafood!

You see, Al Ain might not be on the seaside, but it is very well placed at an intersection of fresh seafood directly from the Indian Ocean of Oman, from the Gulf itself being equidistant both from Abu Dhabi and Dubai, and also from the imported undersea delights of Europe and the rest of the world!

The variety on offer is exceptional.

I think there is barely any sort of saltwater delicacy that you cannot find at Ayla's Seafood Sensation!

Some of it ready to eat...

...and some that you select fresh and marinated, and the Chef will prepare it live according to your preferred cooking style!

All in all, a great value - perhaps I dare say the best value in town!

Expect delicious seafood dishes, and anticipate lots of choice: you bring a table of friends and family, and their appetites, and a fabulous unforgettable dinner with fun and laughter is yours.

That is what Seafood Sensation is all about!
