

The Fish Market at Radisson Blu Deira Creek, in Dubai

Hosted by Dubai's first five-star hotel, the Radisson Blu on Deira Creek, it is only fitting that a fine-dining seafood restaurant, just a walk away from Dubai's bustling fish market, represents one of the best fish and shellfish meal you can have in Dubai.

Chef Elmer runs a tight ship, and his touch is everywhere - from the fresh seafood selection, to the preparation in the kitchens.

The base ingredients lay the foundation for The Fish Market - and it is clear the restaurant's namesake is accurate!

With an encyclopedic knowledge of the fruits of the sea, Chef Elmer's reputation ensures he has first pick of the catch.

And the variety on offer is staggering!

And you take your pick directly off the ice.

Including live lobsters from the water tank!

But it's one thing to run a fresh fish market stall, and completely another to prepare your choice in the kitchen - and this is where The Fish Market excels!

On the one end are the base ingredients, but it takes much talent and experience to transform them into these delights of culinary excellence:

Whether it is grilled or crispy fried,
