The tasteful interior (and exterior!) design highlights Canopee Cafe's approach to their food offerings – they are innovative and intense, and not afraid to stand out.

The terrace is enormous, and the theme is obviously inspired by the rainforest tree canopy.

It's a popular lunch spot, and reservations are a must!

Far from being a tourist hub, this is where the locals gather for business lunches.

The meal itself was delicious and well-presented, with light portions and a selection for entree, main, and dessert.

An interpretation of wrapped sashimi with beef for starters,
