

by Debora Khretdao

Everyone needs to escape sometimes...and Six Senses Spa provides the perfect opportunity to do just that! Craft a personalized experience catered to you specifically and come out a new you, both physically and spiritually.

There is no limit at Six Senses with 6 radiant suites to choose from, each is carefully designed to enhance a different sense - sight, smell, sound, taste, touch, and beyond.

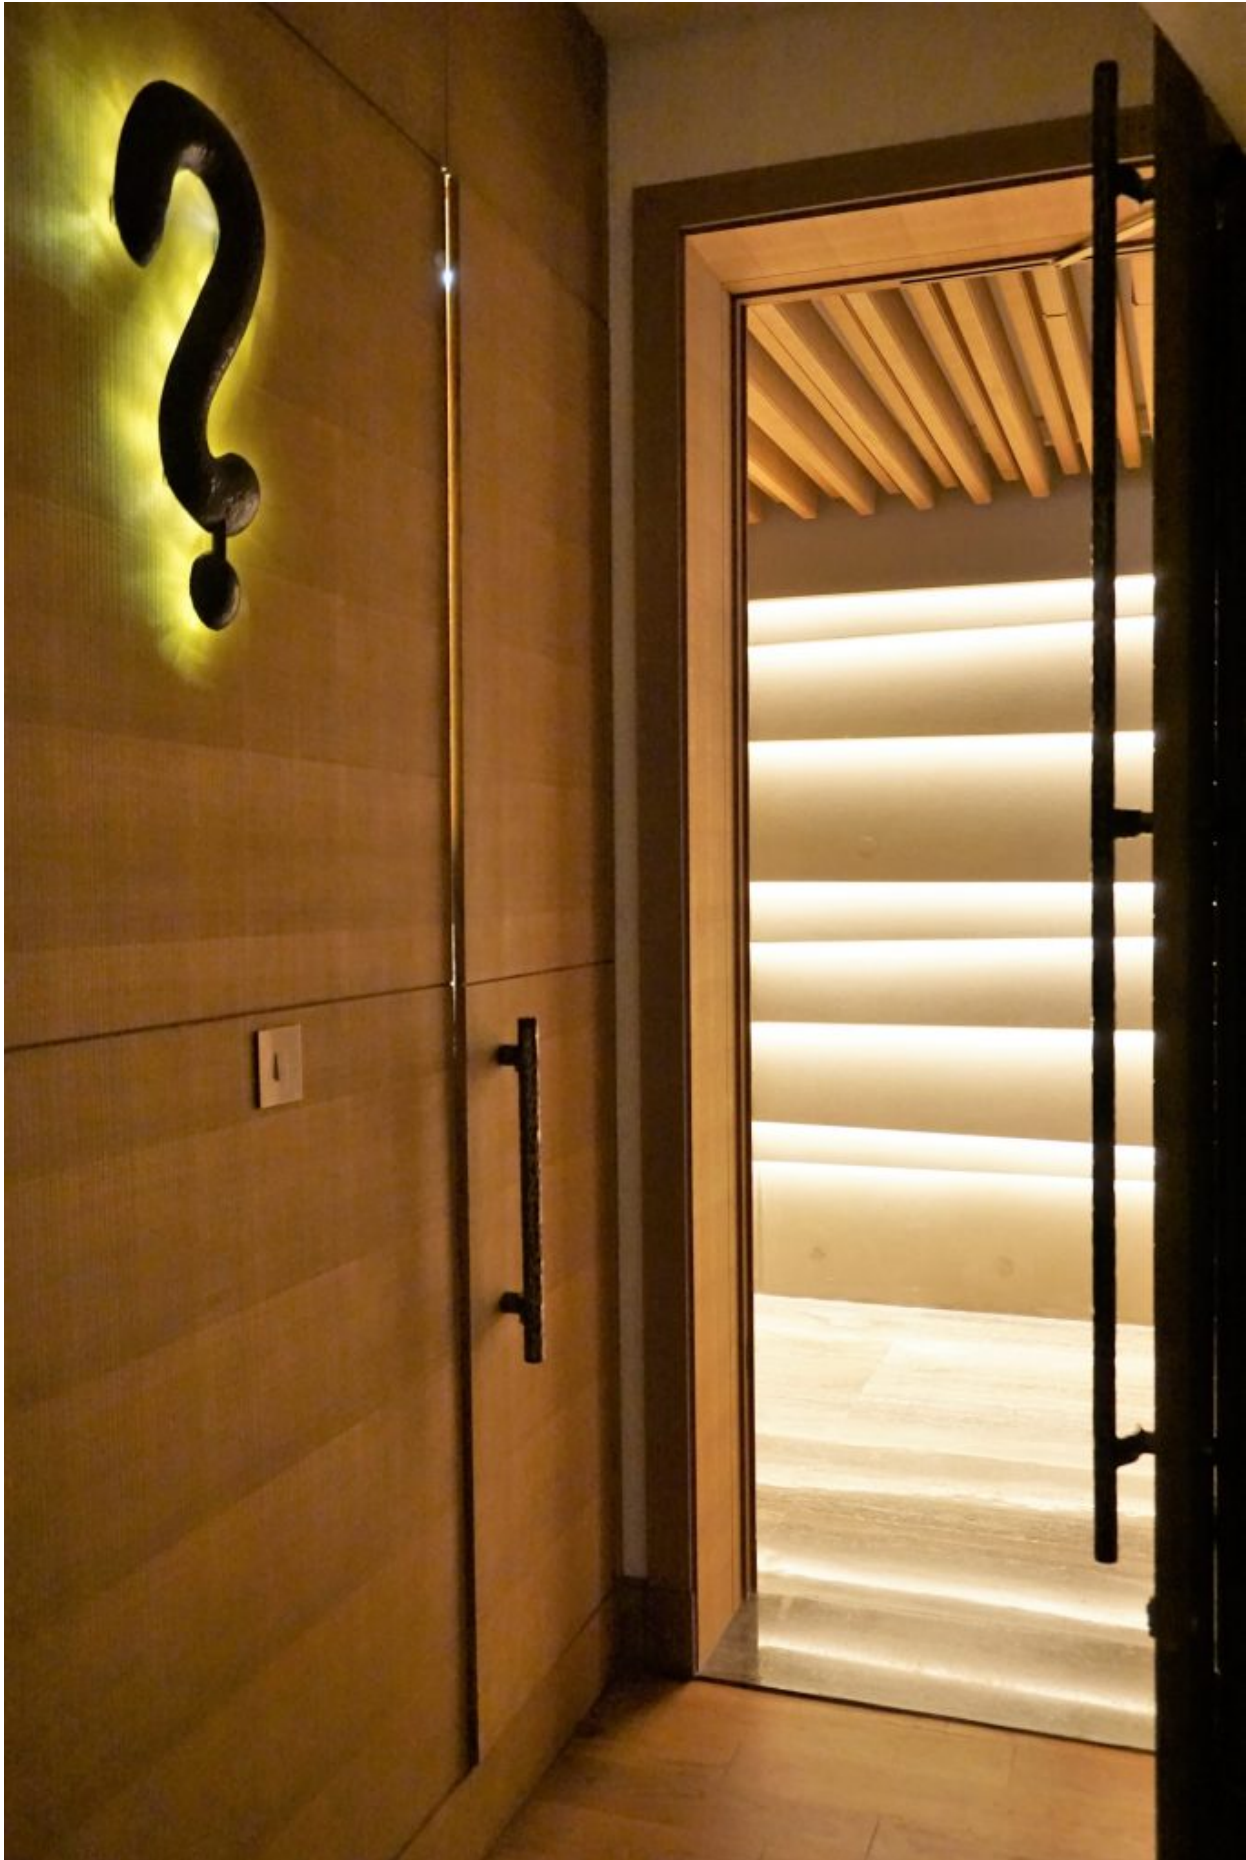

From the moment you walk in, Six Senses Spa begins your sensual journey. They focus even on the tiniest of details. The soothing music will send you into a peaceful trance, the heated massage beds will soak you in, the vibrations of the singing bowl will relax your body at the slightest touch...And all this before you have started the actual treatment!

Whether you decide to go for one of their many massages or facials, a sensory experience, or a wellness therapy or activity, it is impossible to be disappointed here. The expert staff truly take their time and ensure your experience exceeds all expectations, and the products used are top-quality - you will feel the quality yourself as you leave with your skin glowing.

Six Senses Spa at Renaissance Downtown Hotel, in Dubai

Regardless of your selected treatment, you will have a private suite at your disposal. Your suite will have a sitting area with a view from the fifth floor through its glass wall, both a steam room and a sauna, a changing area, and then the treatment room. Each suite is uniquely decorated and equipped to provide the absolute best ambiance for each step of your journey.

If you wish to prolong your experience, the spa lobby sells a vast collection of products available for purchase on exit.

Six Senses Spa pampers each of your senses without fail, no matter the treatment you choose, and this is the heart and soul of what makes it one-of-a-kind. You come to unwind but you leave with much more!

