And the most powerful, yet smooth and under-stated, welcome drink you'll ever experience!

In fact, The London Project has developed its bar theme to a very high level of sophistication, in a partnership with Hendrick's gin, as well as dedicated gin garden with over 45 varieties of the juniper spirit!

Gin in a teacup? Don't mind if I do!

As an example of the level at which The London Project aims its brunch, consider the 'fish 'n' chips' interpretation:

Champagne battered haddock, served with caviar... how amazingly scrumptious is that?

And that amazement pretty much is repeated at each round of the very satisfying brunch...

From an outstanding handmade gnocchetti and truffles, with porcini mushrooms cream sauce...

... to inventive purple potato soft tacos, with a genius touch of sauerkraut!
