

Holiday Arabian Resort in Hatta

Hatta used to be a popular day trip from Dubai - straight from the coastal urban metropolis into the deep wild mountains of the UAE - and that hasn't changed.

What has changed is that finally it is no longer a day-trip!

Hatta has found its groove with a good variety of overnight accommodation and day-time attractions that the drive back needs not to be in the same day, and a lovely night in the high mountain town adds a splendid dimension to Dubai's favorite getaway destination.

Holiday Arabian Resort in Hatta

And chief among the resorts in the area is the Holiday Arabian Resort, particularly for a group of friends or large family.

You get your own villa...

...and your own backyard.

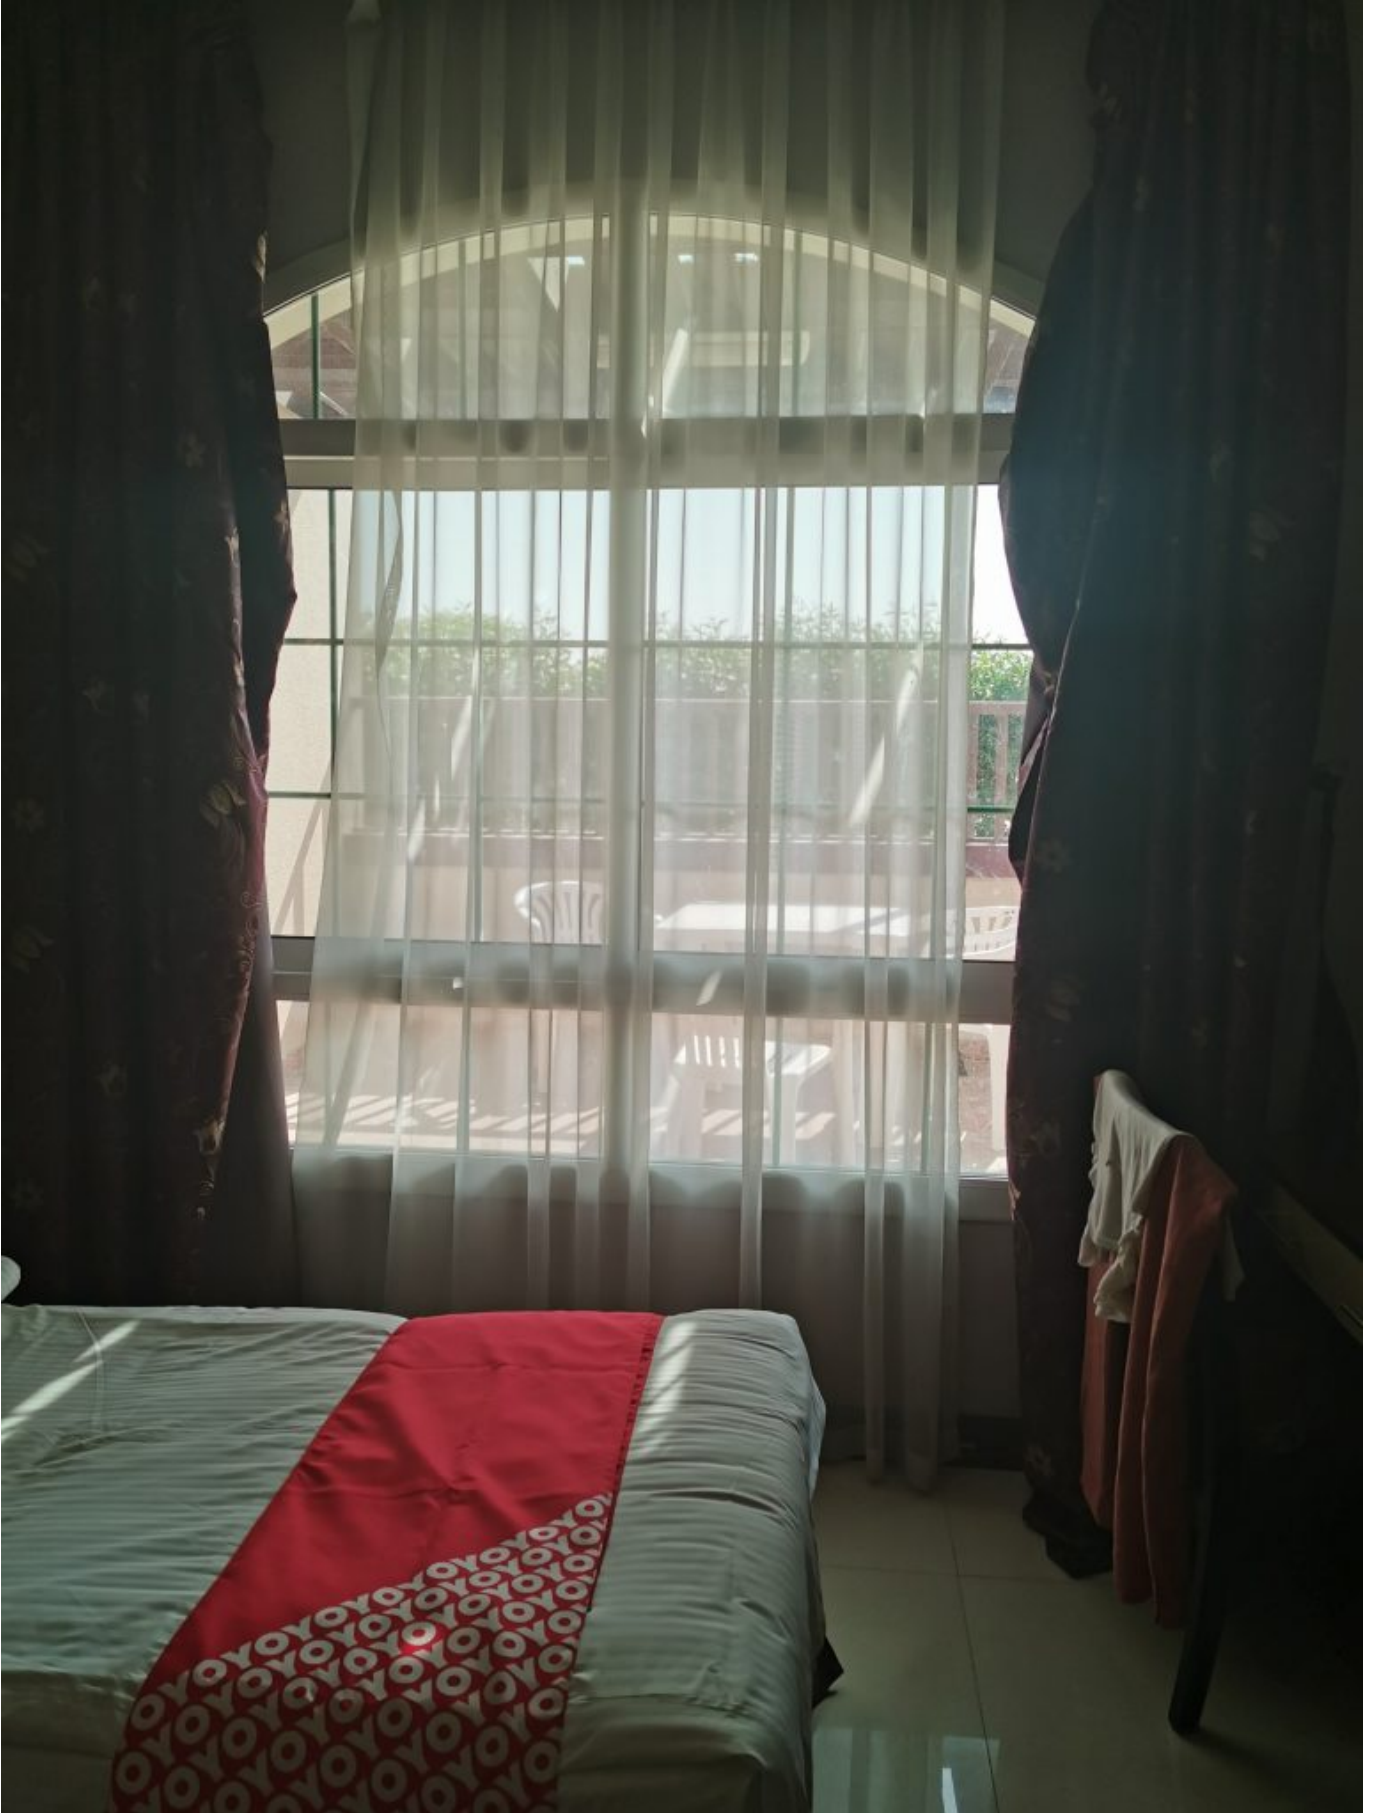

Holiday Arabian Resort in Hatta

Priced to be affordable, basic but with all you need for a fantastic weekend!

Holiday Arabian Resort in Hatta

And this is within the Holiday Arabian Resort gated compound, with swimming pools, restaurant, and bar.

With some nice touches of care, too - like the infant's cot, for instance.

Breakfast was great when ordered a la carte,

And dinner was tasty, too!

Particularly the Indian fare... and the crispy crunchy chicken!

Alternatively, Arabian grilled meats are available,

as well as flavorsome biryanis.

Holiday Arabian Resort in Hatta

By the way, all these can be served to the comfort of your villa, and also BBQ equipment can be provided!

Holiday Arabian Resort in Hatta

Part of the resort is under maintenance,

but for the most part you will feel very comfortable and at home.

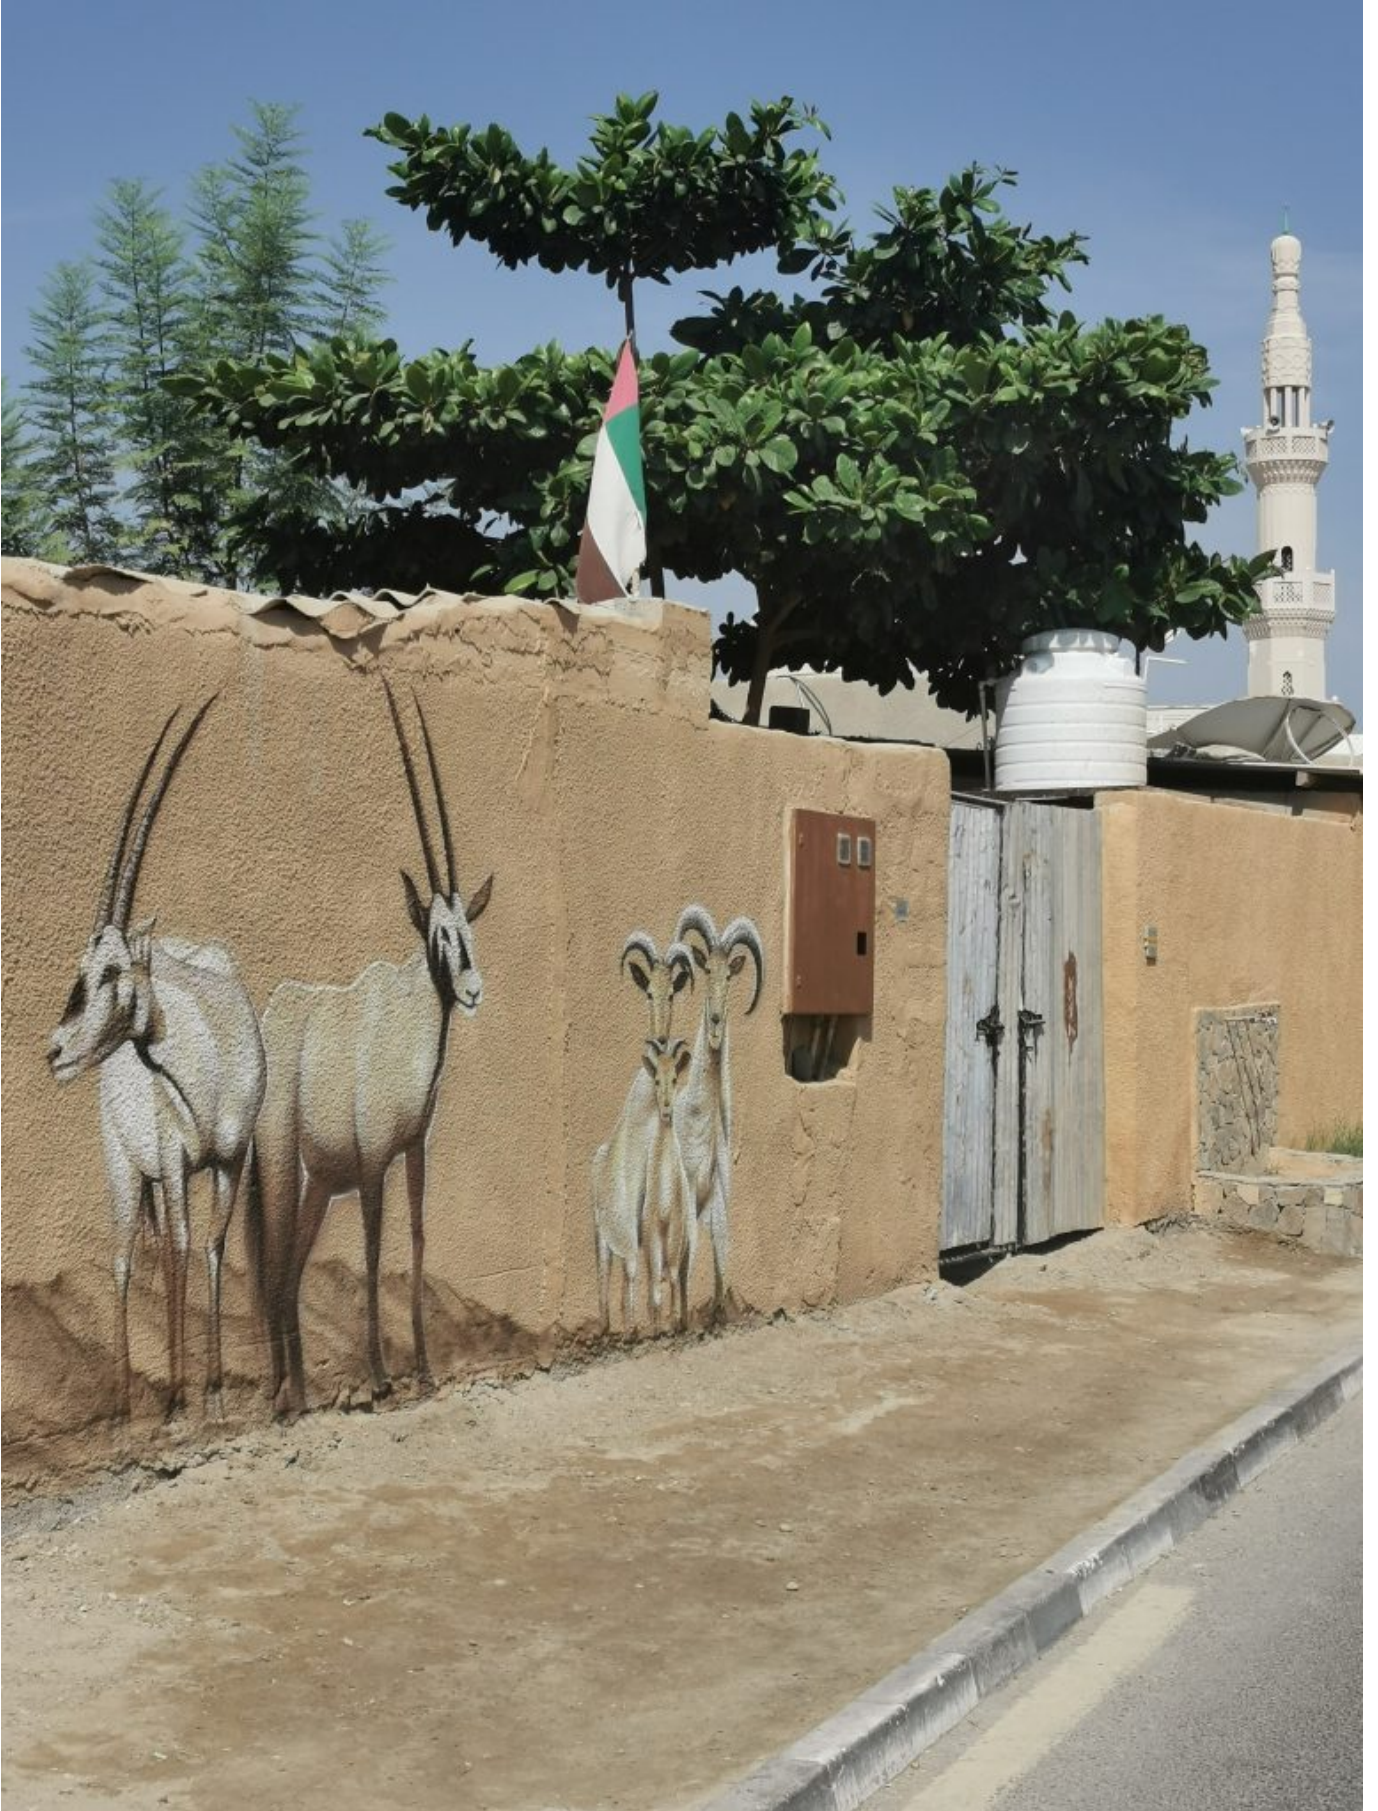

Holiday Arabian Resort in Hatta

And in Hatta itself, many new visitor attractions will keep you busy and interested, including some tucked-away places for you to discover!

Some quirky and unique!

Holiday Arabian Resort in Hatta

And some well-known, such as the picturesque Hatta dam, the Heritage Village, the oases, the mountain wadis, and the new mountain biking and zip-lining tourists areas.

And when you're done exploring, back to your home away from home at Holiday Arabian Resort!

