What has changed is that finally it is no longer a day-trip!

Hatta has found its groove with a good variety of overnight accommodation and day-time attractions that the drive back needs not to be in the same day, and a lovely night in the high mountain town adds a splendid dimension to Dubai's favorite getaway destination.

And chief among the resorts in the area is the Holiday Arabian Resort, particularly for a group of friends or large family.

You get your own villa...

And some well-known, such as the picturesque Hatta dam, the Heritage Village, the oases, the mountain wadis, and the new mountain biking and zip-lining tourists areas.

And when you're done exploring, back to your home away from home at Holiday Arabian Resort!
