

LONDON'S CALLING WITH THE RE-OPENING OF THE LONDON PROJECT

Bluewater's Island hotspot is officially reopening its buzzing, botanical terraces for indoor and outdoor dining Dubai, 5th May: Dubai's most vibrant restaurant, The London Project, is re-opening its stunning al fresco terraces and cool indoor corners for the city's foodies to enjoy.

Located on Bluewater's Island, Dubai, the buzzing botanical restaurant will open its doors for diners from the 7th of May and will be serving up a brand-new menu, featuring a fusion of feasts from different London districts. Offering a 30% capacity, The London Project is a capital destination, allowing families and friends to enjoy the outside again, with uninterrupted views of The Beach and JBR.

copyright Paolo Rossetti, ask first for reproduction of contents (text, photos, etc.) - prosett@weekenduae.com

Boasting stunning, outdoor botanical terraces and trendy indoor seating, The London Project is the ideal spot for a tranquil and soulful experience. Featuring a brand-new menu, diners can expect a full buzzing palate of Camden's street eats, refined by Mayfair's polished flair, colliding plate-first with the mouth-watering cuisine of a Shoreditch kitchen. Dishes not to miss, include Oxford Beef Cheek Croquettes, Beer Battered Fish & Chips and The Wagu Burger. For something sweet, Queenies Chocolate Torte will hit just the spot.

Below is the Wild Mushroom Gnocchi.

With easy access from Bluewater's Bridge and available parking, The London Project is welcoming bookings and walk-ins, with tables up to 4. The restaurant is closely following the advice of the local health authorities and the highest standard of health and safety is being implemented to ensure the wellbeing of staff and guests.

London Project Re-Opens in Dubai

