

Dai Pai Dong rolling out its Mid-Autumn Celebration menus

For the occasion of the upcoming mid-autumn festival, also known as the 'full moon' festival, Dai Pai Dong has exciting mouth-watering dishes rolled out especially for that occasion.

Known for getting its inspiration from the street food movement, Dai Pai Dong's menu showcases modern interpretations of classic Chinese dishes. Nestled where Rosewood Abu Dhabi meets The Galleria, Dai Pai Dong is represented by a smoky Dragon and Phoenix. This authentic Chinese restaurant celebrates honest Cantonese cuisine and is a must-visit in Abu Dhabi's growing fine dining scene.

Savor Chinese delicacies such as homemade noodles and dim sum, as well as barbecued meats. MID-AUTUMN CELEBRATION | Available until 3 October

The Mid-Autumn Festival is one of the most important and biggest occasions celebrated in China and Eastern Asia. It is where family and friends unite to honor the harvest season, feast and watch the full moon, a symbol of harmony. Traditionally it is celebrated from mid-September to early October, and at Dai Pai Dong the celebrations start early with the crayfish promotion followed by a series of offerings throughout the festive season including traditional Mooncakes, crab promotions, a family set-menu and a gala Yum Cha brunch to end the festivities.

•Crayfish promotion available until 1 October 2020

Crayfish Set menu | AED 388 - serves 2 guests

Indulge in a special set menu featuring a kilogram of the seasonal crayfish marinated in spices and braised in garlic. Prawn crackers, salted edamame, crayfish spring rolls, dry hand-pulled noodles, Chinese vegetables and a plate of seasonal fruits all part of the set menu. The set menu is also paired with your choice of a bottle of red or white grapes.

Crayfish 'A La Carte' | AED 268 per kilo - serves 2 guests

Serving two to three guests, an order of the braised Crayfish with garlic sauce will leave you fully satisfied.
