

If you remember the old Moodz, forget it – empty your memory archive, because it is now a totally re-invented, re-vamped, and re-imagined modern sports bar and cocktail lounge!

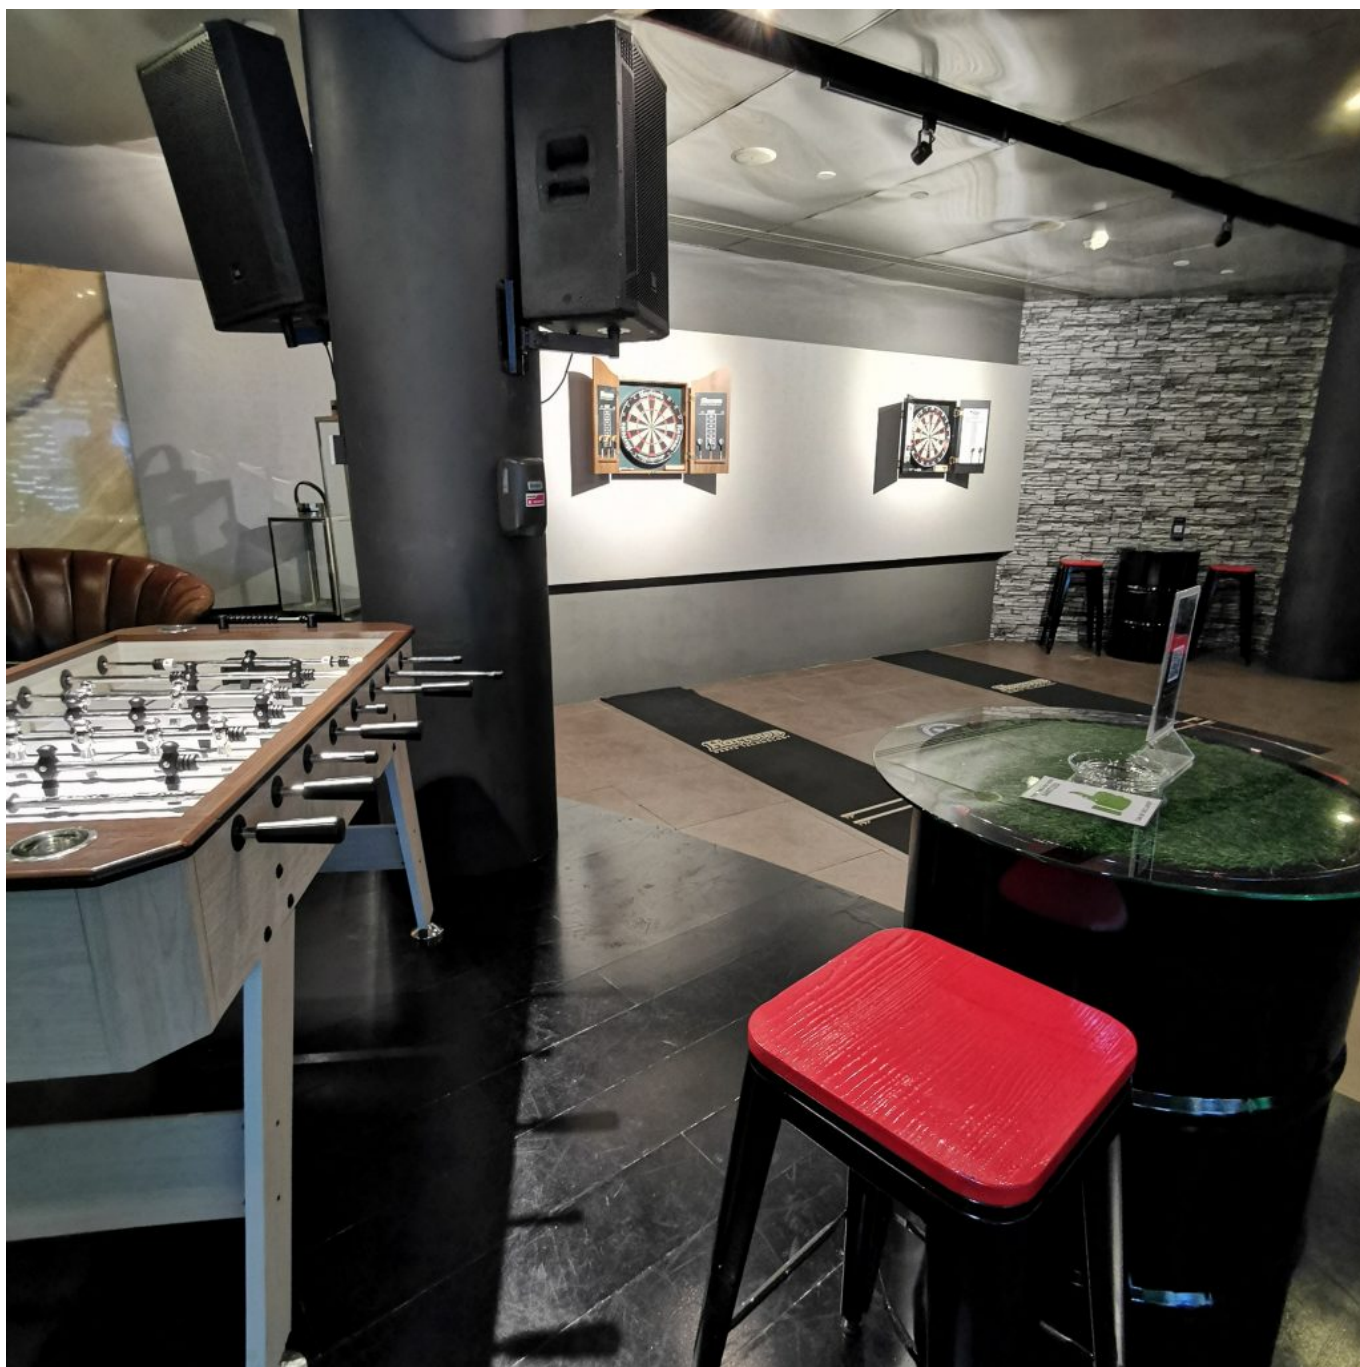

And I think Al Ain is going to love it.

A very contemporary interior design shines light onto its name – Moodz – and it's elegant and sophisticated, while not going overboard; in fact, there is a funky mood by the bar, and then a chill-out mood at the other end – very cleverly done.

There's also a games zone, which offers yet another mood - and friendly competitions for darts and billiards competitions are already running, with fussball to start soon as well.

And this extra dimension runs in parallel to the many large-screen TVs broadcasting live all the important world sports events!

At the same time, as part of the five-star Al Ain Rotana hotel, Moodz is classy and sophisticated in its offerings, including a well-stocked wine cellar, as well as a wide selection of spirits and professional cocktails.

And the lounge is spacious enough to easily accommodate the social distancing precautions without losing a sense of atmosphere.

However, as enticing Moodz is as a watering hole and a place for after-work drinks, what really sets Moodz apart is its food menu.

In addition to flavorsome and top quality bar snacks, a proper dinner out is part of the Moodz attraction.

Add a fresh pint of draught beer...

or an exquisite non-alcoholic mocktail...

and Moodz has your meal sorted:

Majestic burgers, beef or chicken patties grilled to perfection, and garnished creatively

Creamy Caesar Salad, with choice of shrimp or chicken, served with crunchy veal bacon chunks and croutons, topped with a smiling egg all sorts of fresh salads and sides, including mozzarella sticks, ciabatta garlic bread, sweet potato fries, etc.

and all sorts of crunchy snacky bar favorites as well as platters

Overall, the re-born Moodz really does cater to all moods, and as a new sports lounge option in Al Ain it should soon attract a loyal following of sports enthusiasts, as well as people looking for a chill and modern place to hang out with friends.

Give it a go, and I think you'll like what you find!

Rated 3.9 7 votes
zomato