Diablito has a special vibe – it’s chilled, and effortless; and at the same time it’s classy, but understated, and cozy – and just plain delicious!

Mega-choice of pizzas, fantastic thin crusts...

And marvelous paellas - authentic, and so expertly prepared!

Look closer, and you see the famed socarrat - the crispy, toasted rice so loved by paella connoisseurs!

And despite the impressive location dockside, where basically you could step off your yacht and step into Diablito, the atmosphere is chill and friendly - and alongside the magnificent Spanish food, I'd say that is Diablito's best feature.

Diablito is a restaurant where you instantly feel comfortable – at home.
