

Asil presents an enchanting alternative to the regular Lebanese restaurant in Dubai - in fact, gathering the Orient's delicious varieties of cuisines within one high-class venue is genius.

Not only you may indulge in famed Lebanese delicacies at a very refined dining level of excellence, but equally enjoy Turkish and Moroccan dishes!

In a sense, Asil represents the best dishes the Orient has to offer, and the choice is simply yours.

And then you discover the other half of Asil, the terrace, and you almost forget to breathe!

From cozy and comfortable low-sofa seating to more traditional dining arrangements, the spacious open-air patio opens up to an astounding view – probably Dubai's finest!

And there's room for everybody!

Asil is huge, and perfect for large parties and joyous events such as weddings.

And yet the marvelous venue and decor have not distracted to good folk running Asil, led by the intuitive experience of GM Hussein Hadla – and Asil's best feature is indeed the stellar level of silver service offered to dignified guests, as well as the exceptionally delicious dishes.

Because dining is ultimately about the food, and especially the sincere hospitality in presenting the dishes and making sure everything is perfect.

And indeed dining at Asil is a memorable experience.

The surprises keep coming, from an exciting arrangement of fabulous cold mezzes, including an Aladdin's lamp of theatrical dry ice...

All of which prepared as haute cuisine level, to delight Dubai's gourmets.

For example, admire the epicurean refinement of even the traditional dishes:
