Wow! Bold, adventurous, yet your comfort is paramount.

Inside, the heart of Revel Haus is its high stage, set up for live music with professional lighting and amazing sound system - flatscreen TVs abound, and the atmosphere is electric!

It's clear that Revel Haus is party central!

As one would expect, the bar is hopping hot, and the bartenders have populated the drinks menu with an exceptional selection of cocktails, as well as stocked the bar with all sorts of quality liquors and connoisseur fancy concoctions – some of which I've never even heard of!

Expertly prepared, with great balance of flavors, the Caribbean style Coco Maal, played off white rum with Blue Curacao, and creamy coconut was refreshing as well as an attractive delight at the table.

It's good to experiment, and Revel Haus is the place to do it!

But where I think Revel Haus excelled, and surprised, is in matching avantgarde bartending with delicious food!

You see, in general, you're either a night club or a restaurant... to be exceptional at both is indeed a rare quality.

And so at first impression, confirmed by the interior decor and feel, and then the tip-top bartending, I would have forgiven if I had not been totally blown away by the food...

However, Revel Haus had a surprise up its sleeve!

From the first starters, we exchanged looks of wow!

Really!?!

Not only was the selection of Indian cuisine very interesting, almost eclectic, but the flavors were really a wow.

One thing is for sure: nobody is going hungry at Revel Haus Restro Pub!

Plentiful finger foods for sharing...

And full veg and non-veg starters and main courses!

Dishes were delicious, accompanied by the gracious generosity that Indian hospitality is famous for.

And just plain yummy!

Particularly if you are a large group of friends, perhaps out for a celebration, Revel Haus is a top choice of venue in Dubai - in this regard there are also special sharing dishes and creative platters as options upon inquiry.

It is obvious that the good folk in the kitchens do not want to be out-done by the bar staff!

Flavors were excellent, and the skills of the Chef were on display in every dish.

Overall, the “Restro Pub” part of the name makes perfect sense – indeed Revel Haus Restro Pub brings together a winning combination of drinks and Indian food, within an exciting music lounge concept.
