To impress a date, or for a lovely time spent with family and friends, Toshi is top dinner option in Dubai.

Cozy nooks abound, and you're sure to find just the right seating arrangement for you and company.

The all-inclusive package – available at several levels depending on your preference of drinks – brings into focus a lively buffet and a fabulous live station for an excellent selection of fresh seafood!

And the sushi section is phenomenal!

Basically, the combination of self-serve buffet and bespoke live station offers the best of both worlds.

For the seafood live station, you simply make your selection - and there must have been a dozen or so fresh options: think rip-roaring fish market!
