

There is an additional something-special when the venue for a luxurious weekend brunch has the bragging rights to being the historical first five-star hotel established in Dubai!

Indeed, the fine pedigree as the central hub of Dubai's business, diplomatic, and entertainment has developed alongside the progress of the great city of Dubai itself.

Still, some things never change, such as the dedication to dignified hospitality and kind attention to every guest's needs.

And so, when the Radisson Blu Dubai Deira Creek launches a weekend Heritage Brunch, the who's who of Dubai - and lucky you! - are invited to participate in more than just a scrumptious brunch: it is indeed a social and cultural event of significance!

And for the momentous occasion, recipes of 50 years ago are resurrected, alongside the combined culinary powers of 5 of the Radisson Blu's restaurant outlets, bringing together a gastronomical extravaganza of eminence in Dubai.

In fact, the entire mezzanine atrium of the Radisson Blu Dubai Deira Creek is re-imagined for this brunch - a central souq of delicacies from the Fish Market, Aseelah (Emirati cuisine), The Pub, Minato (Japanese), and Shabestan (Persian).

And besides benefiting from the combined offerings of all these esteemed kitchens, you may also choose your preference in seating at any of the venues.

The selection of dishes is encyclopedic...

You may as well refer to the Heritage Brunch as a living museum of epicurean delights.

Indeed, if you are living or visiting Dubai, this brunch is the art gallery expo of delicious foods - I beg of you not to miss this opportunity!

But we would have enjoyed the Heritage Brunch just as well had we selected any of the other five restaurant dining halls.

Children also were not forgotten, with their own child-height buffet line of favorites!

And above all the deliciousness, the tradition of stellar silver service and genuine smiles permeated, courtesy of the Radisson Blu Dubai Deira Creek staff, who were on hand for any personalized request, or just to offer a hot cup of Emirati coffee.

The desserts section was also impressive - not only in the sheer variety of delicacies, but also in the exquisite craftsmanship and attention to detail.

Overall, the Heritage Brunch is not to be missed - a unique and respectful nod to Dubai's history, yet a full-
